UCL Moodle Staff Guide

Covid-19 teaching continuity

Please be advised that UCL’s Teaching and Assessment Continuity webpages offer fully up-to-date resources and guidance to support colleagues to teach remotely across a variety of approaches, including lectures, seminars and group study, tutorials, and project supervision. You are advised to follow links at this location rather than search for resources independently.

Drop in sessions for Moodle will be offered to support staff in teaching online. Please visit the Digital Education blog for further information.

Moodle News and Information

Please keep a lookout on this page for updates on our Moodle platform and to access student/staff guides!

Release Roadmap

The Moodle Roadmap can now be found on our Wiki pages here: See link to Moodle Roadmap

What's new with Moodle?

We are continuously improving Moodle. To view the latest plugins and features, see the Moodle 3.7 - Summer 2019 Upgrade page.

This roadmap is intended to be a living document and will provides an active view into our internal roadmap, and will be updated on a weekly basis by the Moodle Service Owner.

Student E-Learning Help guides are also available.

Running an exam in Moodle?

Guides grouped by level

All Moodle spaces should meet the UCL E-Learning Baseline.

UCL Baseline

These guides will help you meet the Baseline:

- Navigation around Moodle
- Setting up your Moodle course
- Moving elements around your course
- Adding text - Topic names, Labels and Pages
- Links, files and folders
- Reading lists
- Images
- Blocks
- Books
- Forums
- Lessons
- Profile
- Groups (if required)

Do consider also the Accessibility of your Moodle course(s).

>> UCL Baseline+

In addition to the Baseline, wholly online courses will need to reference:

- Activity completion and Conditional release
- Reports
- Induction for your students
- Assignments (Moodle Assignments or Turnitin)
- Questionnaires
- Embed Twitter and RSS feeds
- Embed video
- Glossaries
- Databases
- Blogs and Wikis
- Quizzes
>> Resources - how to add static materials to your course.
