Covid-19 teaching continuity

Please be advised that UCL’s Teaching and Assessment Continuity webpages offer fully up-to-date resources and guidance to support colleagues to teach remotely across a variety of approaches, including lectures, seminars and group study, tutorials, and project supervision. You are advised to follow links at this location rather than search for resources independently.

Drop in sessions for Moodle will be offered to support staff in teaching online. Please visit the Digital Education blog for further information.

Moodle News and Information

Please keep a lookout on this page for updates on our Moodle platform and to access student/staff guides!

Release Roadmap

The Moodle Roadmap can now be found on our Wiki pages here: See link to Moodle Roadmap

What's new with Moodle?

We are continuously improving Moodle. To view the latest plugins and features, see the UCL Moodle release notes page.

Courses - how to set up your courses

The Digital Education team provide a range of UCL specific Moodle guides here. You can also browse the official Moodle guides at Moodle.org. The page 'Release Notes' lists all the latest functionality you can use with Moodle. If you are looking for information about other digital education tools aside from Moodle and Turnitin please see the Digital Education website.

Contact servicedesk@ucl.ac.uk if you can't find what you are looking for.

Student Digital Education Help guides are also available.
